CLAMP

About the Creators

CLAMP began as a desperate fan correspondence system in the late 1980's. Two of CLAMP's favorite authors, as well as creators of Saint Seiya and Captain Tsubasa. During those four years, the membership of the group changed from a dozen artists to the final team of four who have continued to work together to this day. CLAMP is made up of Naoyuki Okamoto, Motoko Arima, Maki Nishio, and Ranoko Igarashi. Their first professional work was BG: A Real Fantasy Tale, an anime/manga series. They quickly followed it up with Man of Many Faces (aka Meno to Orogaki), the first story set in the CLAMP School universe. Throughout their career CLAMP has successfully managed to successfully juggle two or more series simultaneously, and their constantly evolving style has kept them at the top of the sales charts around the world. Clabin is their biggest hit to date, being America's fastest-selling graphic novel ever. Currently, CLAMP is at work on four series: X, Legend Dragoon, Tsubasa and XXXHolic.

Editor's Note

In the name of Truth and Justice: all original name suffixes have been retained in DUKLYON CLAMP School Defenders. Name suffixes? you ask? In the Japanese language there are a number of suffixes (also called honorifics) that come after the name which indicate the nature of the relationship between two people. Whether a character is called Takeshi-sama or Takeshi-kun means a great deal in how that character is perceived by the speaker. Here's a brief listing of name suffixes and when they are used:

-kun—Indicates friendly familiarity with someone on the same level or younger. It is usually used with boys, but is sometimes used with girls or adults such as a boss to employees or teacher to close students.

-chan—The female equivalent of -kun. It usually refers to girls, but can be applied to boys or adults in some cases.

-san—Indicates respect. -san is the most common suffix and is used among peers who are not on an intimate level. It's the equivalent of Mr. and Ms.

-sensei—Indicates a great level of respect or admiration and is used towards someone much older or of higher standing. Most people use -sensei with Nakoru because he comes from an aristocratic family.

-sensei—The term for upendassamen. It can also be used for someone in an organization who has more experience.

-sensei—The term for teacher. It can also apply to someone who is a mentor figure or a master of a trade.

-jo—A formal way of addressing young girls of high standing, like Utako. Equivalent to Miss.

-yoshi—The equivalent of -jo used for young women. Equivalent to Ms.

If two people are good friends, they might agree not to use honorifics with each other, as is the case when Takeshi addresses Kentaro.

But enough of this boring stuff—you're here to read about those champions of justice, the CLAMP School Defenders! We hope you find this retaining the name suffixes adds to your enjoyment of DUKLYON. If you like reading your manga this way and would like to see suffixes in other TDKYOPOP® series or if you find it distracting or confusing, let us know! Send your comments to editor@tokyopop.com.

SORRY BY TRADITION...

ON MY PLANET, IT IS TRADITION...

...FOR A
YOUNG MAN TO CONQUER A MINOR BORDER-LINE PLANET AS A RITE OF PASSAGE.

I AM THE ONLY SON OF A ROYAL FAMILY FROM ANOTHER
GALAXY

LET ME
SPELL IT OUT FOR YOU, YOU
LITTLE SLUT!

WATCH IT

LET'S MAKE A MOVEMENT TO EXPLAIN

CLAMP WORKS BEYOND
EROSION NEED ONLY A BRIEF
MOMENT OF TIME TO MAKE THEIR TRANSMUTATION

1. FIRST, THEY REMOVE THEIR CLAMP SCHOOL UNIFORMS (ALSO APPLICABLE TO CANNON WEAPONS).

2. THEN, THEY HOLD THEIR REMOVED ITEMS OF CLOTHING.

3. THEY RETREAT, FROM ONE OF THE PRIVATELY LOCATED PICK-UP POINTS LOCATED ON CLAMP SCHOOL CAMPUS, THEIR SUPERHERO BATTLESUITS.

4. THEY DON THE SUPERHERO BATTLESUITS.

5. THEY DON THE SUPERHERO HELMETS.

6. TRANSFORMATION COMPLETE! CLAMP SCHOOL DEFENDERS DEPLOY!

INKO-SAN

CRUSH THAT LITTLE TRAMP!!

HOLD IT RIGHT THERE!!

WHO COULD THAT BE?

DUKLYON!!

CLAMP
SCHOOL
DEFENDERS
!!

WHY ARE YOU RUNNING AWAY?

HEY?

Asaghi

WHAT'S WRONG?

SHE'S JUST TOO

I CAN'T DO IT!
I CAN'T HURT HER!
SAY

AND I AM
THE SPACE
POLICE OFFICER
SENT HERE TO STOP

YOU'RE THE LEADER OF AN EVIL
SECRET SOCIETY PLOTING TO CONQUER EARTH!

WHY
DID YOU PROTECT ME?

IT DOESN'T MAKE SENSE.

FROM HER!

SCREEECH!

NO! I SWEAR I

THEY JUST USED THEIR GIANT BEAM TO MAKE HER

SHE'S STILL AN ORPHAN
MAYBE, BUT

MY QUEEN!
FATHER, MOTHER!

SO THAT'S WHAT THE PRINCE HAS TAKEN UP TO.

KA KA KA

THEN YOU SHOULD JUST GIVE UP
AND RETURN
